GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS FOWLER TO N.C. POST-RELEASE SUPERVISION AND PAROLE COMMISSION

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Willis J. Fowler of Raleigh to the N.C. Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission.

Fowler is a post-release and parole revocation hearing officer at the Department of Community Corrections in Raleigh. He was a 2002 honorary member of the N.C. Sheriffs' Association. Fowler attended Wake Technical Community College.

The commission helps make decisions regarding paroles and inmate population in the state and advises the governor on clemency matters. The commission has three members, each serving a four-year term. The governor appoints all members.
